Orion announces inclusive value-added accommodation packages worth thousands of dollars

Sydney 12 July 2010: Orion Expedition Cruises has announced a range of inclusive value-added accommodation packages aimed at enhancing guest experiences on all Orion Australian 7 night voyages in November and December 2010. This effectively adds another 2 or 3 nights to the holiday experience at no additional cost to the regular Orion expedition fare.

Guests can select from one of the following pre or post voyage accommodation options, staying in some of the finest and most sought after hotel and spa/lodge properties available:

- Cairns – qualia or Pullman Reef Hotel Casino
- Sydney – Emirates Wolgan Valley Resort or Four Seasons Hotel
- Melbourne – Chateau Yering or Crown Metropol Hotel
- Hobart – Saffire, Freycinet or Henry Jones Art Hotel

These premium 2 and 3 night accommodation packages are worth up to $5,000 and include meals, transfers and private tours, representing significant added value for guests.

Complete voyage and accommodation details are available in a 20 page booklet available directly through Orion Expedition Cruises or travel agents. Prices for all these Orion packages start at the regular price of $6,040 per person based on twin share in a Category A stateroom.
